SUBJECT: Change to the DoDFMR, Volume 7A, Regarding –
Navy Supplemental Clothing Allowance for Band Members, (DFAS Item I-80)

Attached is DFAS Interim Change 12-00 to Chapter 29 of the DoDFMR, Volume 7A. This change has an effective date of October 27, 1999.

The purpose of this change is to add duty as a member of the U.S. Navy Band Washington, DC, and the U.S. Naval Academy Band to the current list of Navy band members entitled to supplementary clothing allowances. Also included is clarifying language to the payment frequency for supplementary clothing allowances.

We have evaluated your comments on the draft proposal of this change to the DoDFMR, Volume 7A. The attached final version of the change incorporates your comments where appropriate.

Assignment of an interim change number is your authority to start a procedural modification to facilitate this change. For the Denver Center, use the attached to initiate the formal printed change to the DoDFMR and the interim change message.

NOTES:

- ★1. The supplementary clothing allowances listed are, unless otherwise noted, payable upon initial assignment to a normal tour of the duties described and at the frequency specified in this table. Allowances to be paid as annual allowances will be paid upon assignment and upon each subsequent anniversary date of the initial assignment or entitlement, provided the member is projected to remain in the assignment for at least an additional 6 months. Allowances to be paid as once in 3 year allowances, will be paid after 36 months from the date of any prior payment, provided the individual's condition/duties continue to require the supplementary allowance and they are projected to remain in the assignment for at least 6 additional months. Allowances to be paid as only upon assignment allowances will be paid only when first assigned to the specified duty. A supplementary allowance may not be paid more frequently than once per year for similar duty even if at different locations or commands or for subsequent recalls to active duty within 1 year, except by special authority of the Service Secretary or his designee.
- 2. Recruiting or recruiting support duty means active duty assignment to: Navy recruiting areas, Navy recruiting districts, Navy recruiting "A" stations, Navy recruiting stations, Military Entrance Processing Stations, or to Naval Reserve activities. It also includes Naval aviation cadet procurement teams at Naval Air Reserve activities. It is payable to recruiters after reporting to the enlisted Navy Recruiter Orientation Course or upon completion of the Veteran Recruiter Orientation (VETRO). It is payable to recruiting support personnel upon receipt of orders to such duty. It is payable to members in BUPERS controlled recruiting billets or a recruit support billet upon initial assignment when specialized training is not required prior to the recruiting assignment.
- 3. Eligibility requires completion of Recruit Company Commander or Recruit Drill Instructor School.

NOTES:

- ★1. The supplementary clothing allowances listed are, unless otherwise noted, payable upon initial assignment to a normal tour of the duties described and at the frequency specified in this table. Allowances to be paid as annual allowances will be paid upon assignment and upon each subsequent anniversary date of the initial assignment or entitlement, provided the member is projected to remain in the assignment for at least an additional 6 months. Allowances to paid as once in 3 year allowances, will be paid after 36 months from the date of any prior payment, provided the individual's condition/duties continue to require the supplementary allowance and they are projected to remain in the assignment for at least 6 additional months. Allowances to paid as only upon assignment allowances will be paid only when first assigned to the specified duty. A supplementary allowance may not be paid more frequently than once per year for similar duty even if at different locations or commands or for subsequent recalls to active duty within 1 year, except by special authority of the Service Secretary or his designee.
- 2. When the reduced maternity uniform allowance has been paid and the member subsequently qualifies for a full maternity uniform allowance within 3 years of the reduced payment, the member will receive only the difference between the 2 allowances. A member may not receive more than the full maternity uniform allowance value within any 36-month period. A reduced maternity uniform allowance may not be paid within 36 months of a full maternity uniform allowance.
